

doorway knockouts

These accessories really make an entrance

1 Go beyond boring with these little numbers. Clockwise from top: Fleuriserie ceramic tile, $8; ecoproducts.com. Paragon brushed stainless number, $21; atlashomewares.com. HouseArt 5" stainless numeral in Terra Rust finish, $24; houseart.net. Hammered metal number from Haiti, $10; tropicdecor.com. Mackintosh stainless steel number, from $210 for 3; eleepkinc.com.

2 No more searching the depths of your bag for keys. Kwikset's SmartCode lock allows for keyless entry. About $99; kwikset.com.

3 Ashley Norton's sleek Urban Suite set comes in dark or white bronze. $660; ashleynorton.com.

4 An antique brass doorknocker that's truly the cat's meow. $20; restorationhardware.com.

5 For fluorescent light with style, try the 53"-tall recycled aluminum Liza pier mount. From $4,800; eleepkinc.com.

6 Troy Lighting's Covent Garden lantern is nickel-coated brass. $993; troy-lighting.com.

7 A stainless steel and frosted plastic inbox. $78; chiasso.com.

8 An illuminated button on this NuTone doorbell (NB5511BL) lights the way for guests. $41; nutone.com.

—K.K.

